Physician Elected President of North Carolina Society of Otolaryngology and Head and Neck Surgery

9/11/09

Dr. Merritt Seshul was recently elected as the President of the North Carolina Society of Otolaryngology and Head and Neck Surgery (NCSOHNS). The NCSOHNS is the state-wide professional association of otolaryngologists in North Carolina, representing more than 305 otolaryngologist-head and neck surgeons who diagnose and treat disorders of the ears, nose, throat, and related structures of the head and neck. Some of the medical disorders treated by physicians in this specialty include chronic ear infection, sinusitis, snoring and sleep apnea, hearing loss, allergies and hay fever, swallowing disorders, nosebleeds, hoarseness, dizziness, and head and neck cancer.

The NCSOHNS works to advance quality patient care and the practice of otolaryngology-head and neck surgery through education, advocacy and communication. To learn more about the Society, visit their website at www.ncoto.org.

Dr. Seshul is a partner at Carolina Ear, Nose & Throat Head and Neck Surgery Center. He is Vice President, and also serves as the Medical Director of Carolina Sinus & Allergy.
